Raising Awareness in Eating Foods presents

The Real Dictator

Edited by Amrithavarshini Anand Grade VIII - B

Amrithavarshini A

Ciao Mates!, Welcome Back. To start with, I would like to ask you a simple question, Have you ever been a person who zealously wanted to lose weight, but failed?, or a person who wanted to wake up at an unusual time to do something useful but could not make it?, else were you a person who wanted to start something fresh in life, you even took initiative of it, yet got stuck in the same old routine? Who is instructing ourselves to do something against our own thoughts. Is it our inner selves or who could it be? Come on, let's buckle down ourselves into this compilation to find out this mystery.

On reading this, you might start thinking about the possible personals like your family members, friends, your higher officials, prominently the society but, what would be your reaction?, if I say that the dictator is traveling with you every single moment of your life and that the dictator never leaves and if the dictator does, it is only after your soul leaves your body, astounding but kind of acceptable, is it not? Now, some must have started thinking mythically, the others must have even got the answer in guess. Let me expand my point of view of the dictator. Here, the word dictator is used to mention the controller. Firstly, let us analyze the for-mentioned personals, then move onto the brief about the real dictator.

Family Members:

Mostly, the members of our family would dream about us, more than we do, wouldn't they? They constantly try bringing up their ideas about our future plans indirectly, sometimes even directly, out of nowhere, have you ever noticed or experienced that yourself? One must have, in this era of the development of the civilization and the modernization of the lands. These suggestive ideas as time pass, they turn into instructions which get instilled in our minds. These installations can further turn two ways, either as a command which be followed only at the time in which it is told or as a habit which is cultivated by the sensation and realization of what is told. Think about it.

And that's it for this part, mates. See you in the next.

Until then,

It is the editor of Raising Awareness in Eating Foods and some other topics excluding it,

Signing Off.
